The Class of 2007
is pleased to dedicate
this year's Proctorian to:

Mr. Greg Mott

a.k.a. "Mott Dogg"

We've all seen him walking down the hallway with swinging arms and a wide smile. In class we watch as he pulls down maps, shuffles papers, and scribbles on the board as he leads discussions or lectures about government, street law or history. Most of us have participated in at least one mock trial under the jurisdiction of Mr. Mott somewhere in our high school experience.

Because he is such a devoted student of history, politics and culture, Mr. Mott offers us, his students, a unique perspective in each of his classes. He presents the facts and allows each person to formulate his or her own opinion. Each comment is valued and each perspective invited. Quite often, Mr. Mott's life experiences become a part of the lesson and they help to create a depth to his instruction that enhances the words printed in our history textbooks. Whether discussing the wilds of New Zealand or the hostels of Western Europe, he brings that personal connection into his classroom.

As a devoted husband and father, an accomplished student and teacher, a world traveler and above all else, a really nice guy, the Class of 2007 would like to thank Mr. Mott for all that he has done and continues to do for Proctor High School. By making history tangible, he inspires us to learn.

The man bent over his guitar,
A shearsman of sorts. The day was green.

They said, "You have a blue guitar,
You do not play things as they are."

The man replied, Things as they are
Are changed upon the blue guitar."

And they said then, "But play, you must,
A tune beyond us, yet ourselves,

A tune upon the blue guitar
Of things exactly as they are."

Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.

Homecoming day was the biggest game for the Men's Varsity Team. Upsetting rival West Rutland 1-0 with three seconds to go in sudden death overtime. Even though their record was 4-7-2 the men were hard workers and respectful over the season. Though they lost to Concord in the playoffs 0-1 on a penalty kick, the men gave it all they had. The team will miss graduating seniors Alex James, Chris Perry, and Chris Loso. The Varsity Men were coached by Ray Fish and assisted by Chris Stevens.

The Lady Phantoms won the marbles back, bringing them home where they belong. Their season record of 3-10-1 showed how much sweat and heart was left on the playing field after a tough season. Their season ended at Whitcomb, 0-3. Even though they lost the girls played hard throughout the entire game, showing how far they had come as a team. The team will miss graduating seniors Ali Flewelling, Kendra McMahon, and Ashley McCullough. The ladies were coached by Ms. Jennifer Dobart and assisted by Mrs. Suzanne Lind.

The Phantoms came into the season with one thing in mind, bringing home the Division 4 State Championship. They achieved that goal and so much more, ending the season undefeated (23-0). Their skill and their TEAM approach to the game, with everyone contributing in different ways, made them unbeatable. Highlights from this amazing season include: beating rival West Rutland in our senior game where Randy Chartrand scored his 1000 points, Kyle McGuarrie's full court shot ending the first quarter in the championship game, Alex Salgo shutting down almost any player defensively, Curtis Robinson's outstanding rebounding, winning the Bob Abrahamson Tournament, and a 31 game winning streak starting in February 2006 (and to be continued next season). The team will miss seniors DJ Barton, Dan Probst, Chris Perry, and captains Alex Salgo, and Randy Chartrand. The Men were coached by Mr. Dick Wilcox and assisted by Mr. Brian Finnigan.

The Lady Phantoms showed intensity and effort throughout each and every game, ending the regular season with a record of 10-13. It was a challenging season but as it progressed, the girls learned to work well together as a team. Highlights of the season include: placing second in the Black River Tournament, beating West Rutland in the last game of the regular season on THEIR turf stomping Craftsbury by 40 points during the playoffs, and beating #2 seed Rochester, thereby securing their position in the FINAL FOUR. For the first time in eighteen years the Lady Phantoms travelled to Barre and played in the 2007 Division 4 Semi Finals at the Barre Auditorium. School Store

The new school store in action: pens, pencils and other fun stuff is available for purchase this year during first lunch.

Motivational Speakers

David Major

David Major, "the kid from Canada", encouraged students to find their special talent. He entertained students with his unique version of "Baa Baa Black Sheep" complete with his very own arm pit percussion and awed the croud with his own special talent; he's one of the world's fastest talkers!

Ed Gerety

Ed Gerety was back again to remind everyone what the most important things in life are.

Talent Show

We were well represented with very strong performances at the talent show this year.

And who knows... we may even miss this place some day...

Red Ribbon Week

Marko the Magician talked about peer pressure and self-confidence while he WOWED the audience with his magic tricks. ✳ Middle School Students participated in a Red Ribbon Rodeo where they watched a video about drunk driving and attempted to perform tasks such as relay races and throwing and catching balls wearing goggles that simulated intoxication. ✳ Middle school peer leaders put on a haunted mansion regarding the effects of cigarettes for PES. ✳ The Sheriff's Department brought a rollover simulation vehicle to help remind students to buckle up. ✳ A guest speaker came to share his personal story about his life experiences and struggles using drugs and alcohol with juniors and seniors. He didn't mince any words and his visit is something many will remember for a long time.

VCAT Conference

Middle school students attended the VCAT/GMPP Fall Conference at Mount Snow where they learned ways to educate their peers about the risks and dangers of tobacco.

MESSAGES & ADVERTISEMENTS

Need some doodle practice?
Try the "doodle dot game"
that we used to make these doodles.

Step 1: find a friend. Step 2: grab a pencil and a piece of paper. Step 3: have your friend place random dots in on your paper. Step 4: Have your friend connect some of your dots to create a shape. (Don't let the lines cross, it makes it way too hard.) Step 5: Now it's your turn; stare at the shape until the doodle POPS out at you!!! Remember, no ERASING of the original shape is allowed. (Don't tell your friend your doodle idea.) Step 6: Create your doodle using the shape your friend drew for you BEFORE your friend guesses your doodle.

Havin' FUN yet???
We did when we played!
Having trouble with step 1?????
We started a few for ya
so you can practice.
You might even have room
to squeeze in a few more!

Craig,
We hope your future is all you expect it to be, follow your dreams and make it happen!

Justin,
We're proud of what you have accomplished at PHS.
Good Luck with your future.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Brian

It isn't over 'til it's over. It's over!!
Congratulations Christopher.
We love you.
Mom, Dad & Megan

Dearest Ann,

You have always traveled through life's stages with incredible love and compassion. Keep them in your heart always. We are so proud of you!

Love,
Dad,
Mom,
Christen, Danielle, and Alex

Randy

Buddy - We can't even begin to express how proud we are to have you as our son. You've grown into quite a young man. We love you with all our heart!
Mom & Dad

Zachary, my wish for you is happiness in anything you do. After all you have been through in the last four years you have grown into the young man that I am very proud of. You held the course and remained an individual. As you leave high school and head into the world make sure to live everyday to the fullest and enjoy your life!!!
I Love You,
Mom

Zak, as I have seen you grow and flourish over the past seventeen years I know that you are capable of doing anything you want in life. I am very proud of who you have become and look forward to the person you will continue to grow into. Thomas Edison offered great advice to which I offer to you: "The three great essentials to achieve anything worth while are: hard work, stick-to-itiveness, and common sense." Always remember that I Love You and will be here for you in the future.
Love Dad

Zack- Now that you are going to be FREE make the most of it!! Make every dream come true!! Experience all that you can experience!! Life will have many hardships but with a little faith (and a good job) you'll be able to make it through. Make the best of your last days in high school because they will soon be over and as much as you'll think that you won't want to go back you will!! GOOD LUCK in the "REAL WORLD!" Make all your dreams come true!!
Love, your older and wiser sister,
Brittany

Zack-

Be careful how you tread it,
For every step will show"

Continue to do things you enjoy, be yourself and you will succeed in life. Best of luck in college, you have unlimited opportunities. You are a very special daughter and sister. We love you very much.
Love always, Dad, Mom & Evan

Kyle Davis

Kyle, we are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You have worked very hard and excelled beyond others expectations. Follow your dreams and good luck with your racing.

Steph,
I am so proud of you. You have worked so hard to get where you are today and I love you so much.
Congratulations!
Love,
Mike

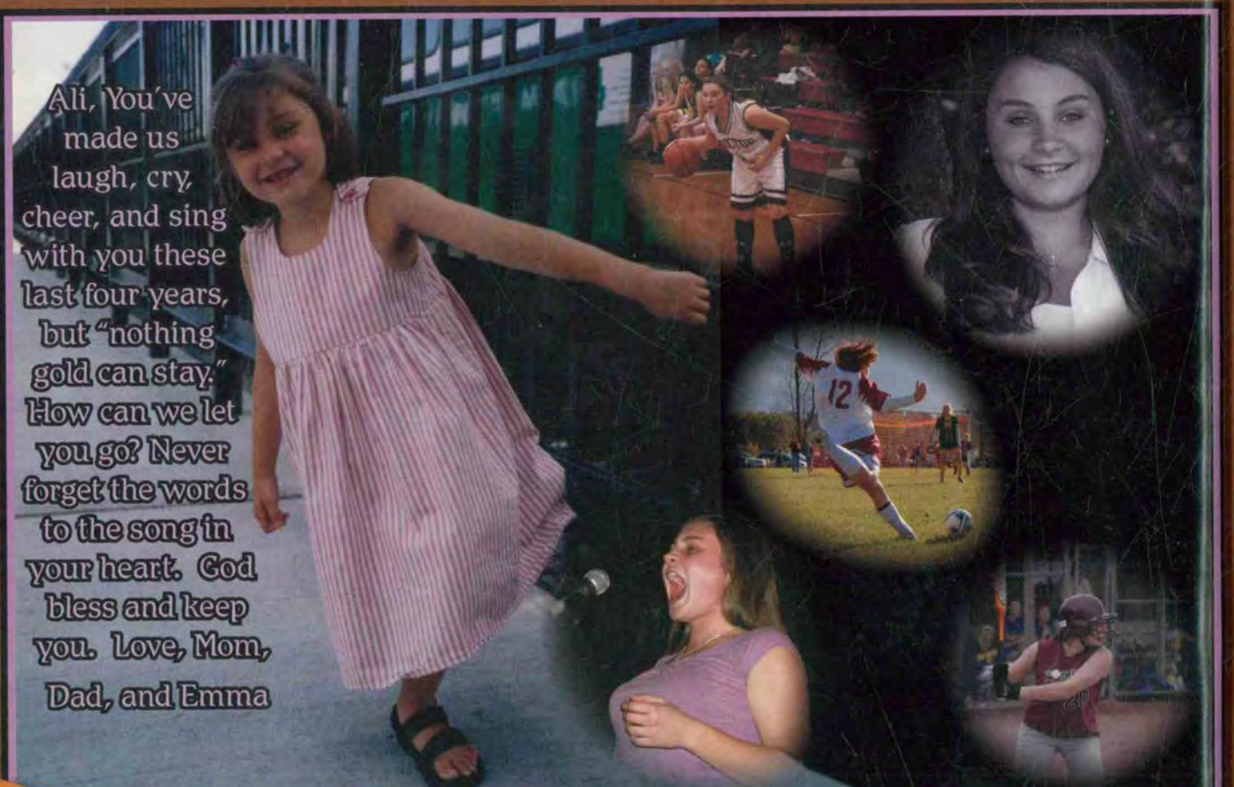
My Dearest Ashley...
In celebration of you - and the beautiful young woman you've become... for all the sunshine you've brought even to some of what seemed to be the cloudiest of days, the joy you've always put in my heart, your spirit & strength of character, your caring & compassion, your determination & success both academically as well as in sports... for all the times we've laughed together, cried together, the great times we've shared, the endless talks we've had... Thanks for it all... a lifetime of wonderful memories.

I am so proud of you...
Congratulations, and always remember...

"...If you get the choice
to sit it out or dance,
I hope you dance..."

...and dance, my Princess, like you never have before.

My Daughter... My best friend...
All my love with an abundance of God's blessings to keep you safe and for all of life's best! Mom ♥

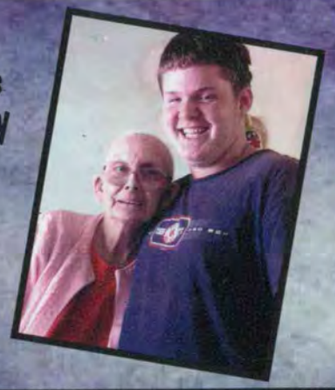


Ali, You've made us laugh, cry, cheer, and sing with you these last four years, but "nothing gold can stay." How can we let you go? Never forget the words to the song in your heart. God bless and keep you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Emma

Ashley,
I just want to tell you how proud I am of you and how much I love you; your accomplishments from the first grade to your senior year are immense. Your drive and determination in sports has shown your family and me just how far you can go in life and what you will be able to achieve. Just remember when the road gets steep it's no hill for a climber.
All my love,
Dad

Congratulations Chris! I'm really proud of you. Gramma would be too.

Love, Mom



Bryan- In life, one of the hardest things is to stay true to yourself. You have taught us all that one must never lose sight of his or her uniqueness-it is okay to follow a different drummen We send you off to your future with two "gifts"- one is roots, the other wings.

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Courtney, James, Kayla, Luke (and Rascal, too)

Haley,

You've reached that point in your life where you step out into the world and become whatever you strive to be! You've gone from my precious little girl to a warm sensitive beautiful human being, making me proud every moment I look at you. You have brought me more love than I ever could imagine. You will always be my #1!

Love, Mom

BEHIND THE SCENES...

Each year our goal as a yearbook staff is to build a yearbook that is as good as the previous year's book. This year we had some pretty BIG shoes to fill and I think each one of us felt that added pressure as we began the school year. For weeks and weeks we struggled with different theme design ideas, and FINALLY we stumbled upon the SCRAPBOOK idea. The more we thought about it the more perfect it seemed. Scrapbooks are "in". Everybody is building one for one reason or another. And these days, being creative with the design of your scrapbook pages is almost as important as the memories themselves. And besides, when you think about it-- what is a yearbook really-- but a collection of pictures and memories from the school year gone by. It's perfect...
well, at least WE thought so.

THE PEOPLE THAT MADE IT HAPPEN
